Camu Value Proposition

FEATURE SET

- With Camu's result management system, all that a test evaluator has to do is enter the marks of the student. The system automatically makes the calculations and generates the report card without any error.
- The result management system of Camu automates the process of filling up the report cards. Students and teachers can also take a print of the card with just a click.
- Result management systems can determine faster the percentage of passing students who would be promoted to the next level.
- The institutes can conduct exams with ease. Teachers can design the exam paper much faster due to technological assistance. The software allows the institutes to issue
