SANSKRITI - 2023

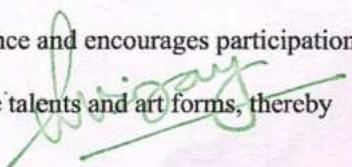

OBJECTIVE :

The annual cultural fest "SANSKRITI" aims to celebrate diversity, creativity, and talent, providing a platform for students to showcase their skills and foster a sense of community within Tulas Institute. Over the course of two days, the event endeavors to:

Day 1: Competitions

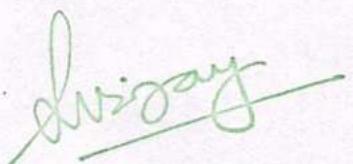

1. Promote Talent: Provide a stage for students to exhibit their talents and skills across various domains including music, dance, drama, literary arts, and fine arts.
2. Foster Healthy Competition: Encourage healthy competition among participants, fostering a spirit of sportsmanship and camaraderie.
3. Skill Enhancement: Offer an opportunity for students to enhance their skills, receive constructive feedback from judges, and learn from their peers.
4. Engage the Audience: Create an engaging atmosphere that captivates the audience and encourages participation and interaction.
5. Promote Cultural Exchange: Facilitate cultural exchange by showcasing diverse talents and art forms, thereby fostering understanding and appreciation among the student community.

 Director
 Tula's Institute, Dehradun

Day 2: Star Concert and Performances in 7 Small Points

1. Entertainment Extravaganza: Present a star-studded concert featuring renowned artists, providing a memorable entertainment experience for the attendees.
2. Showcase Diversity: Highlight the rich cultural diversity within Tulas Institute through a variety of performances representing different regions, languages, and traditions.
3. Celebrate Talent: Recognize and celebrate the exceptional talents of students through captivating performances in the seven small points, including music, dance, drama, comedy, poetry, fashion, and art exhibitions.
4. Create Lasting Memories: Offer an unforgettable experience for attendees, leaving them with cherished memories and a sense of pride in their cultural heritage and artistic accomplishments.
5. Promote Unity: Promote unity and solidarity among students by fostering a sense of belonging and collective celebration of creativity and talent.

Through "SANSKRITI," we aim to create an inclusive and vibrant cultural environment that inspires, entertains, and unites the Tulas Institute community, fostering personal growth and collective enrichment.

Outcomes:

"Sanskriti"

Day 1: Vibrant competitions in dance, music, drama, and art captivated participants' spirits. Talent from across the region showcased creativity and skill, fostering a sense of unity and celebration.

Day 2: The grand finale featured a stellar concert by Sazid Nailwal, Mithun, Asees Kaur, and Mohammad Irfan, electrifying the crowd with their soulful performances. The blend of competitions and star-studded entertainment made Sanskriti an unforgettable experience at Tulas Institute.

Cultural Exchange and Awareness: One of the primary objectives of "SANSKRITI" was to foster cultural exchange by showcasing diverse traditions of love from around the world. The event successfully achieved this by featuring captivating displays, performances, and exhibits, creating an atmosphere of cultural appreciation and awareness among participants.

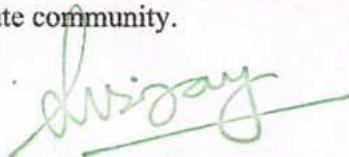

Engagement and Participation: The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff, demonstrating the success of the organizing team in creating an inclusive and engaging program. Interactive performances on culture and fun captured the interest of attendees, encouraging them to actively contribute to discussions and activities.

Community Building: "SANSKRITI" served as a catalyst for community building within Tula's Institute. Attendees, including friends, and individuals, came together to celebrate the spirit of culture. The interactive performance and competitions facilitated connections, fostering a sense of camaraderie among participants, and creating lasting bonds within the institute's community.

Emotional Well-being: "SANSKRITI" contributed to the emotional well-being of attendees by creating a positive and uplifting environment. The celebration of love, whether romantic or self-love, resonated with participants, promoting a sense of happiness and emotional fulfillment. The event encouraged attendees to reflect on the importance of love in their lives and its impact on overall well-being.

Inclusivity and Diversity: The diverse range of participants and activities at "SANSKRITI" reflected a commitment to inclusivity. The event embraced individuals of all relationship statuses, backgrounds, and preferences, promoting an environment where everyone felt welcome and valued.

In conclusion, "SANSKRITI" at Tula's Institute by Vibgyor achieved multifaceted outcomes, enriching the campus community emotionally, culturally, and socially. The success of the event lies not only in its celebration of cultural fest but also in its broader impact on building a stronger, more connected, and culturally aware institute community.

As a film lyricist and singer, he is noted for his songs Arre Ruk Ja Re Bandeh in Black Friday, (2004), Aarambh Hai Prachand in Gulaal (2009), Ik Bagal in Gangs of Wasseypur - Part 1, (2012), and Husna in MTV coke studio

Summary (Press Release)

On November 11th a talk show was organized with Piyush Mishra in association with Discover Uttrakhand Magazine at Tula's Institute wherein towards the beginning the show was inaugurated by Lamp Lighting Ceremony post to which he was felicitated with a stole and a token of love. After the inauguration and felicitation, the show started wherein anchor RJ Sahil Tikyani interviewed Mr. Mishra about his educational background, career and so much more. Towards the end, the audience round started where the students requested him to sing his famous songs and even asked him some questions. The session proved to be interactive and yet amazing and all the students enjoyed it thoroughly.

Outcome:

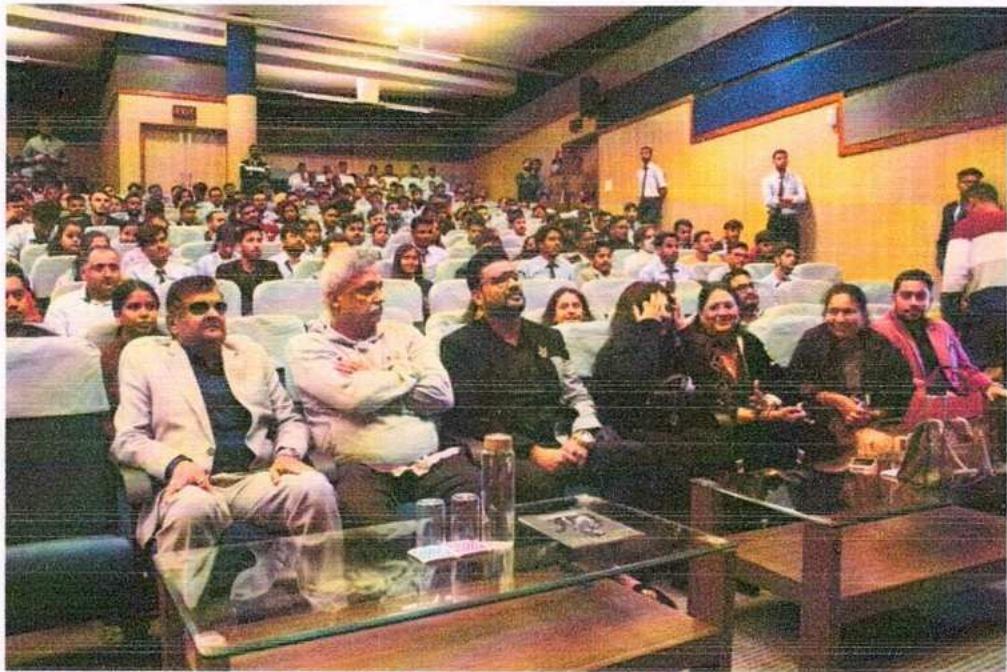

- Talk shows center around the interaction of guests with opposing opinions and/or differing levels of expertise, which include both experts and non-experts.
- The celebrity's speech or interaction with students can inspire and motivate them, encouraging personal and academic growth.
- The event can foster a sense of community among students, faculty, and staff, enhancing the overall campus culture.

Actor Piyush Mishra's Shayari Enthralls Students Of Tula's

Dehradun (The Hawk):

Tula's Institute hosted a Talk Show with the renowned Indian actor, lyricist, playwright, musician, and screenwriter Piyush Mishra, Chairman of Tula's Group Sunil Kumar Jain, Vice President of Tula's Group Raunak Jain, Vice President of Technology Dr. Raghav Garg, Registrar, Tula's Institute Pawan Kumar Chauhan, Dean Dr. Nishant Saxena, Dr. Ranit Kishore, and Head Master Tula's International School Mrigank Pandey among others.

Piyush Mishra commenced his session by sharing anecdotes about the legendary freedom fighter Bhagat Singh. He spoke about how he wrote a play in 1994 on Bhagat Singh and how there are several facts about the freedom fighter which are missing in many of the books written about him. He said, "We don't find many people like Bhagat Singh today. Out of all the freedom fighters, I respect him the most. The things that he went through and what he did for our country compelled me to write a play on him."

Sharing his views on the emerging trend of OTT platform, Piyush said, "OTT platform is one of the most trending mediums of entertainment in today's world. Thanks to OTT, countless individuals got a golden opportunity to showcase their talents on the big screen. Although the OTT has largely taken over, the trend of conventional films and theatrical releases will never fade away. It will always remain the evergreen medium of entertainment."

Addressing the gathering, he shared a lesson with the students of Tula's. He said, "As per my personal experience, I would always suggest the youngsters to stay as much away as possible from liquor. I have gone through a very bad phase in my life due to liquor, and I don't want anyone else to go through the same."

He further said, "Another thing that one should never forget is to be forever respectful and grateful to your parents. You should clear all your differences, if you have any, with your parents before it gets too late. Otherwise, you will regret your entire life."

Sharing his experience as an actor in Bollywood, Mishra said, "The most amazing experience that I had in the industry was while shooting for Gangs of Wasseypur. It was one of the best movies ever made, and I loved all my co-stars."

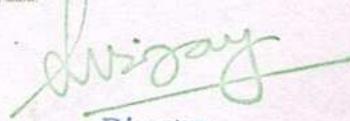

Adding further, he said, "Cinema was never a passion for me. It was an occupation; a mere source for earning money. My passion has always been theatre. I look forward to giving theatre lessons to aspirants in Dehradun."

Piyush concluded the session by singing his famous song 'Aarambh Hai Prachand', and the audience happily sang along. He also shared his love for Dehradun and how the city has always been a relaxing retreat amid his busy life in Mumbai.

Speaking on the occasion, the Vice President of Tula's Group Raunak Jain said, "We're glad to have such an eminent personality of the Bollywood industry, Piyush Mishra, among us. His session was a mixture of life lessons, poetry, songs, and funny anecdotes. Students of Tula's had a great time during the session."

The talk show was hosted by the BJMC department of the college. Several hundred students of Tula's Institute as well as Tula's International School attended the talk show.

कार्यक्रम की शुरुआत अभिनेता पीयूष मिश्रा, तुलाज़ ग्रुप के अध्यक्ष सुनील कुमार जैन, तुलाज़ ग्रुप के उपाध्यक्ष रौनक जैन, प्रौद्योगिकी के उपाध्यक्ष डॉ. राधव गर्ग, डीन डॉ. निशांत सक्सेना, डॉ. रनित किशोर, हेड मास्टर मुंगंक पांडे, रजिस्ट्रार डॉ. पवन कुमार चौधरी सहित सभी उपस्थित गणमान्य व्यक्तियों द्वारा दीप प्रज्वलन के साथ हुई।

पीयूष मिश्रा ने अपने सत्र की शुरुआत महान स्वतंत्रता सेनानी भगत सिंह के बारे में किससे साझा करके की। उन्होंने बताया कि कैसे उन्होंने वर्ष 1994 में भगत सिंह पर एक नाटक लिखा था, और कैसे उनके के बारे में कई तथ्य हैं जो उनके ऊपर लिखी गई कई पुस्तकों में नहीं बताये गए हैं। उन्होंने कहा, आज के समय में हमें भगत सिंह

जैसे महान लोग देखने को नहीं मिलते। सभी स्वतंत्रता सेनानियों में से, मैं सबसे अधिक सम्मान उन्हीं का करता हूँ। जिन चीजों से वह गुज़रे और जो कुछ उन्होंने हमारे देश के लिए किया है, वह देखते हुए मैंने उनके उनके जीवन के बारे में लिखा है। ओटीटी प्लेटफॉर्म के उभरते चलन पर अपने विचार साझा करते हुए, पीयूष

ने कहा, ओटीटी प्लेटफॉर्म आज की दुनिया में मनोरंजन के सबसे ट्रैंडिंग माध्यमों में से एक है। ओटीटी के आने से अनागिनत व्यक्तियों को बड़े पर्दे पर अपनी प्रतिभा दिखाने का सुनहरा मौका मिला है। हालांकि आज ओटीटी का चलन बड़े पैमाने पर है, लेकिन फिल्मों का बनना और हॉल में लगाने का चलन कभी कम नहीं होगा। सभा को संबोधित करते हुए उन्होंने तुलाज़ के छात्रों के साथ एक सबक साझा किया। उन्होंने कहा, अपने व्यक्तिगत अनुभव के अनुसार, मैं हमेशा युवाओं को शराब से जितना हो सके दूर रहने की सलाह देता हूँ। शराब के कारण मैं अपने जीवन में एक बहुत

बुरे दौर से गुजरा हूँ, और मैं नहीं चाहता कि कोई और व्यक्ति भी उसी चीज़ से गुज़रे। उन्होंने आगे कहा, क्षणिक और चीज़ जिसे हमें कभी नहीं भूलना चाहिए, वह है हमेशा अपने माता-पिता के प्रति सम्मानजनक और आभारी रहना। समय रहते हमें अपने माता-पिता के साथ अपने सभी मतभेदों को दूर कर देना चाहिए। अन्यथा, हमको जीवनभर अपने पर पछतावा होगा। बॉलीवुड में एक अभिनेता के रूप में अपने अनुभव को साझा करते हुए, मिश्रा ने कहा, इंडस्ट्री में मेरा सबसे अद्वित अनुभव गैंग्स ऑफ वास्पुर की शूटिंग के दौरान रहा।

About Rangoli

Rangoli is a timeless tradition that is followed all over India. Rangoli is also known as Alpana, Aripoma, or Kolam. It is an ancient art, practiced by almost all households. In many cases, designs are passed down through generations with some of them being hundreds of years old.

The word 'Rangoli' is said to have been derived from the words 'Rang' and 'Aravalli' which refers to a row of colors. Rangoli designs and colors vary between different regions but they all follow some basic patterns. A Rangoli usually has a geometrical structure that is also symmetrical. The design patterns often consist of natural elements like animals, flowers, etc.

Rangoli at Diwali

Diwali is celebrated, primarily to herald the coming of the Goddess Lakshmi. Prayers are offered to her, asking for her blessings in the form of wealth. As such, a Rangoli design is created at the entrance of the house, not only to welcome the guests that visit, but also the Goddess herself. Rangoli patterns are usually made using coloured chalk, rice powder, and crushed limestone.

There is no limit to how big a Rangoli can be. Most Rangolis are the same size as a doormat placed at an entrance. These Rangolis are especially popular among residents of city buildings, where space is a constraint. For larger houses like bungalows, it is not uncommon to find an entire courtyard filled with a colorful designed Rangoli.

The variety in patterns and the difficulty levels for a Rangoli is largely dependent on the talents and skills of the person making the Rangoli. A Rangoli is always made by hand and all designs are carved out using the fingers. A line is usually drawn using a single finger, like a pencil. In some cases, a pattern may be outlined using dotted movements, which are joined together at the end. Once a pattern is formed, the desired colors are filled in.

Summary Report

On 19th October 2021, Tula's Institute organized a rangoli and diya making competition to mark the upcoming festival of lights - Deepavali.

In the esteemed presence of Dean Academics- Nishant Saxena , Dean of Management - Ranit Kishore and Registrar- Pawan Kumar Choubey , the rangoli competition was observed, which was initiated by the Tula's Vibgyor

The students created beautiful rangoli patterns on various concepts like Om, Swastik, Peacock etc. Students put in a lots of effort and came up with amazing ideas. They used diyas, flowers and other decorative material to beautify their rangolis.

Outcome:

1. Assisting Those in Need: The primary outcome of a cloth donation drive is providing clothing to individuals and families who may not have the means to purchase new clothes. This can help address issues of poverty, homelessness, and vulnerability, ensuring that basic clothing needs are met.
2. Community Engagement: Donation drives often engage the community in a collective effort to support those in need. People come together to donate clothing, volunteer their time, and organize the logistics of the drive, fostering a sense of solidarity and compassion.
3. Empowerment and Dignity: Receiving donated clothing can empower individuals by meeting their basic needs and enhancing their sense of dignity and self-worth. Having appropriate clothing can also enable people to participate more fully in society, including in employment, education, and social activities.

Event Report :-

The VMSB-UTU Inter-College Football Tournament featuring 16 teams sounds like an exciting event! Here's a typical structure for such a tournament:

Tournament Format

1. Group Stage (if applicable):

- 16 teams were divided into 4 groups of 4 teams each.
- Each team played all other teams in its group.
- The top 2 teams from each group advance to the knockout stage.

2. Knockout Stage:

- Quarterfinals: 8 teams (winners of the group stage) played in the quarterfinals.
- Semifinals: 4 winners from the quarterfinals advanced to the semifinals.
- Final: The 2 winners from the semifinals face off in the final.

3. Single-Elimination Format (if skipping the group stage):

- All 16 teams played a single-elimination format from the start.
- 8 matches in the first round, 4 quarterfinals, 2 semifinals, and 1 final.

Key Aspects

- Match Durations: Standard football match times are 90 minutes, split into two halves of 45 minutes each, with extra time or penalty shootouts in case of ties.
- Awards: Prizes for the winner, runner-up, best player, top scorer, and other individual accolades.

19. SDSU Inter-University North Zone 06th -07th March 2023

Event Report:-

The SDSU Inter-University North Zone Tournament universities from the northern part of the region, offering a competitive platform for various sports, including football. Here's a brief breakdown of how an Inter-University North Zone Football Tournament might be structured:

Tournament Format

1. Participating Universities:

- Colleges from various parts of Uttarakhand participated in the tournament who are affiliated to UTU.

2. Knockout or Group Stage:

- If there are many teams, group stages might be used. Teams are divided into groups, with each playing a round-robin format.
- If fewer teams participate, the tournament could start with a direct knockout format.

3. Stages:

- Preliminary Rounds: The initial rounds where teams compete to qualify for the quarterfinals.
- Quarterfinals: The top 8 teams compete for a place in the semifinals.
- Semifinals: The final four teams battle it out for a spot in the finals.
- Finals: The two remaining teams face each other to claim the championship title.

4. Venue:

- Matches are usually held at one of the host universities with adequate sports infrastructure. The university must have a well-maintained football field.

5. Match Duration & Rules:

- Standard football matches with 90 minutes of play, split into two halves of 45 minutes each.
- In case of a tie, extra time or a penalty shootout determines the winner.

6. Awards:

- Trophies and medals for the winning team and runner-up.
- Individual awards for best player, top scorer, best goalkeeper, etc.

20. SDSU Inter-Colleges Athletics Tournament 06th- 07th Dec. 2022

Event Report: -

The SDSU Inter-Colleges Athletics Tournament is a multi-event competition where athletes from various colleges affiliated with SDSU (presumably a university) participate in a wide range of track and field events. These types of tournaments foster athletic talent and encourage sportsmanship among students. Here's an overview of how such a tournament might be organized:

Event Structure

1. Track Events:

- Sprints: 100m, 200m, 400m
- Middle Distance: 800m, 1500m
- Long Distance: 3000m, 5000m
- Hurdles: 110m hurdles (men), 100m hurdles (women), 400m hurdles
- Relays: 4x100m relay, 4x400m relay

2. Field Events:

- Jumps: Long jump, triple jump, high jump, pole vault
- Throws: Shot put, discuss throw, javelin throw, hammer throw

3. Combined Events (if included):

- Decathlon (for men): A combination of 10 events like running, jumping, and throwing.
- Heptathlon (for women): A combination of 7 events.

Tournament Format

1. Qualification & Heats:

- For sprint events, there could be heats (qualifying rounds), followed by semi-finals and finals.
- Middle and long-distance events may have straight finals if the number of participants is limited, but if large, heats may also be used.

2. Finals:

- Field events typically have direct finals, with each athlete getting a set number of attempts (for example, 3-6 throws or jumps), and the athlete with the best performance winning.
- For track events, the fastest times in the heats qualify for the finals.

3. Scoring:

- Points can be awarded based on finishing positions in each event.
- The college with the highest cumulative points across all events would be declared the overall winner.

Key Aspects

1. Age Categories:

- Some tournaments divide participants into categories based on age or year of study, such as under-18, under-21, etc.

Director

Tula's Institute, Dehradun

2. Gender Divisions:

- Separate events for men and women, with equal opportunities for both in all categories.

3. Venue:

- The event would typically take place in a stadium with facilities for track and field events, such as a running track, long jump pits, high jump areas, and throwing areas.

4. Awards:

- Individual Medals: Gold, silver, and bronze for top three finishers in each event.
- Overall College Champion: The college with the most points across all events receives a trophy.
- Best Athlete Award: Given to the top male and female athletes based on individual performances.

Logistics & Organization

1. Athlete Registration:

- Each college registers its athletes in advance, specifying the events they'll compete in.
- Colleges are typically allowed a fixed number of entries per event (e.g., 2-3 athletes per event per college).

2. Judging & Refereeing:

- Certified referees and judges ensure fairness in all events, especially in technical field events like high jump and javelin.

3. Medical Assistance:

- First-aid and medical teams should be on standby to address any injuries or emergencies.

4. Audience Engagement:

- College students, faculty, and the local community can be encouraged to attend and support the athletes, creating a vibrant atmosphere.

Possible Schedule for the Event:

• Day 1:

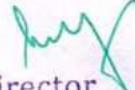

- Opening ceremony, followed by preliminary rounds of sprint events, long jump, and shot put.

• Day 2:

- Finals of the sprint events, relay races, and javelin throw, as well as middle-distance races like 800m.

• Day 3:

- Long-distance events like 3000m, high jump finals, relay finals, and the closing ceremony.

21. VMSB-UTU Inter-University North Zone

16th-24th Dec. 2022

Event Report: -

The VMSB-UTU Inter-University North Zone Tournament likely refers to a sporting competition held among universities in the northern region, organized by VMSB-UTU (Veer Madho Singh Bhandari Uttarakhand Technical University). Here's how such a tournament might be structured and managed:

Tournament Overview

The North Zone Inter-University Tournament is a regional event involving multiple universities from the northern zone of India, often including universities from states like Uttarakhand, Himachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Punjab, Delhi, and others. It brings together talented athletes or teams to compete in a wide range of sports.

Potential Sports Featured

The tournament can encompass various sports depending on the scale and format. Some popular sports in university-level competitions include:

1. Football
2. Cricket
3. Basketball
4. Volleyball
5. Badminton
6. Table Tennis
7. Athletics (track and field events)
8. Kabaddi
9. Kho-Kho
10. Tennis

Format & Structure

The structure of the tournament may vary based on the number of participating universities and the sports being played.

1. Knockout Format:

- Teams from different universities compete in elimination rounds.
- A single-elimination format where losing teams are knocked out of the tournament, and the winners move to the next round.
- Example: In football, 16 teams play in the first round, with 8 moving to the quarterfinals, then to the semifinals, and finally the final.

2. Group Stage + Knockout:

- Teams are divided into groups, and each team plays others in its group.
- The top teams from each group advance to the knockout stage (quarterfinals or semifinals).
- Example: In basketball, teams may play a round-robin group stage, and the best-performing teams advance to the knockout stage.

Venue & Facilities

- The top teams from each group advance to the knockout stage (quarterfinals or semifinals).
- Example: In basketball, teams may play a round-robin group stage, and the best-performing teams advance to the knockout stage.

Venue & Facilities

The tournament could be hosted in one or multiple universities, with different sports taking place at various locations depending on the facilities available.

- Host University: VMSB-UTU, if serving as the main host, would likely provide the main stadium or grounds for large sports like football, cricket, or athletics.
- Other Universities: May also be used for smaller-scale sports such as table tennis, badminton, and volleyball.

Key Considerations

1. Participation:

- Universities from across the northern region would field teams for different sports.
- Individual athletes may also represent their universities in sports like athletics or table tennis.

2. Scheduling:

- The tournament schedule will vary based on the number of sports and teams.
- Larger team sports like cricket or football could take place over several days or weeks, while smaller sports like badminton or table tennis may be completed in a shorter timeframe.

3. Awards:

- Team Awards: Trophy and medals for the winning teams in each sport.
- Individual Awards: Best Player, Best Goalkeeper (football), Top Scorer, etc.
- Overall Championship: The university that performs the best across all sports could receive an overall champion's trophy.

4. Rules & Referees:

- Standard rules for each sport will apply (e.g., FIFA rules for football, BCCI rules for cricket).
- Certified referees or umpires will be assigned to ensure fair play.

5. Cultural Integration:

- Beyond sports, the tournament might include cultural programs like opening and closing ceremonies, where students perform, and university dignitaries speak, fostering unity and collaboration among institutions.

Example of Schedule for a 3-Day Tournament:

Day 1:

- Opening ceremony.
- Preliminary matches for football, basketball, and volleyball.

- Early rounds of table tennis and badminton.

Day 2:

- Quarterfinals for football, volleyball, and basketball.
- Athletics events (100m sprint, long jump, shot put, etc.)
- Semifinals for badminton and table tennis.

Day 3:

- Finals for football, basketball, and volleyball.
- Athletics finals and relay events.
- Award ceremony and closing event.

Audience Engagement

- Students and Faculty: Students and staff from all participating universities will attend to cheer for their teams.
- Local Community: The tournament can also draw in local sports enthusiasts, especially for popular sports like football and cricket.

This tournament serves as a great opportunity for universities to showcase their athletic talents, and it helps promote teamwork, sportsmanship, and regional cooperation among institutions in the northern zone.

22. VMSB-UTU Inter-Colleges Athletics Meet 3rd-4th April 2023

Report on the VMSB-UTU Inter-Colleges Athletics Meet

Introduction

The VMSB-UTU Inter-Colleges Athletics Meet was held on March 10-11, 2024, at the Veer Madho Singh Bhandari Uttarakhand Technical University (VMSB-UTU) sports complex in Dehradun. The event aimed to promote athletic talent among students from various colleges and universities in the region, providing them with a platform to compete in a range of track and field events.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the Athletics Meet were to:

- Foster a spirit of competition and sportsmanship among students.
- Encourage physical fitness and participation in athletics.
- Identify and nurture athletic talent for future competitions.
- Strengthen inter-college relationships and collaboration through sports.

Participating Institutions

The meet witnessed participation from over 20 colleges and universities across the northern region of India, including:

1. Uttarakhand Technical University (UTU)
2. Graphic Era University (GEU)
3. Himachal Pradesh University (HPU)
4. Chandigarh University (CU)
5. Delhi University (DU)
6. Punjab University (PU)
7. Amity University
8. Aligarh Muslim University (AMU)
9. Mahatma Dayanand University (MDU)
10. Banaras Hindu University (BHU)

Event Structure

The Athletics Meet featured a comprehensive schedule of events, which included:

- Track Events:
 - 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, and 5000m races (Men's and Women's categories).
 - 4x100m and 4x400m relay races.
- Field Events:
 - Long Jump, High Jump, Shot Put, Discus Throw, and Javelin Throw (Men's and Women's categories).

- Combined Events:

- Decathlon (Men) and Heptathlon (Women) competitions.

Each event was organized under the supervision of certified officials and coaches to ensure fair play and adherence to athletic standards.

Highlights of the Meet

1. Opening Ceremony:

The meet was inaugurated by the Vice-Chancellor of VMSB-UTU, Prof. (Dr.) N.K. Joshi, who emphasized the importance of athletics in overall student development. The opening ceremony included a march past by participating colleges and a performance by local cultural artists.

2. Record-Breaking Performances:

- Anjali Sharma from Chandigarh University set a new meet record in the 100m sprint with a time of 11.5 seconds.
- Rahul Mehta of Graphic Era University broke the previous record in the Javelin Throw, achieving a distance of 70.3 meters.

3. Team Spirit and Participation:

The enthusiasm among participants was evident, with many colleges rallying behind their athletes. Cheerleaders and supporters from various institutions created a lively atmosphere throughout the event.

4. Awards and Recognition:

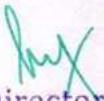

- The top three performers in each event were awarded medals, certificates, and prizes.
- The Best Athlete award went to Anjali Sharma for her outstanding performance in the sprints and relays.
- The Overall Champion College trophy was awarded to Graphic Era University, which accumulated the most points across all events.

Conclusion

The VMSB-UTU Inter-Colleges Athletics Meet was a resounding success, showcasing the athletic talent of students from various institutions. The event not only highlighted the importance of athletics in promoting health and fitness among students but also fostered a sense of unity and collaboration among participating colleges.

The meet set a benchmark for future athletic events in the region, encouraging more students to engage in sports and aim for excellence. The organizing committee is already planning the next edition to continue this tradition of sporting excellence.

23. Open Senior National Baseball 6th-9th April 2023

Report on the Open Senior National Baseball Championship

Introduction

The Open Senior National Baseball Championship was held from April 5 to April 10, 2024, at the Indira Gandhi Sports Complex in Delhi. This prestigious event brought together the best baseball teams from across the country, showcasing the talents of senior players and promoting the growth of baseball in India.

Objectives

The key objectives of the championship were to:

- Promote baseball as a competitive sport in India.
- Provide a platform for players to showcase their skills at the national level.
- Foster unity and sportsmanship among players from different states.
- Identify and nurture talent for potential selection into national teams.

Participating Teams

The championship featured participation from 16 state teams, including:

1. Delhi
2. Maharashtra
3. Karnataka
4. Tamil Nadu
5. Punjab
6. Uttar Pradesh
7. Gujarat
8. Haryana
9. West Bengal
10. Andhra Pradesh
11. Kerala
12. Telangana
13. Odisha
14. Bihar
15. Chhattisgarh
16. Himachal Pradesh

Event Structure

The championship was structured as follows:

- Format:
 - Round-robin stage followed by knockout rounds.
 - The top teams from the round-robin stage advanced to the semifinals.
- Games:
 - Each match followed standard baseball rules, with games played in a 9-inning format.

Highlights of the Championship

1. Opening Ceremony:
The championship commenced with a grand opening ceremony attended by dignitaries, sports officials, and former baseball players. The Chief Guest, a notable sports personality, emphasized the importance of baseball in promoting teamwork and physical fitness.
2. Exciting Matches:
The championship featured numerous thrilling matches, with standout performances from several teams. Highlights included:
 - Delhi vs. Maharashtra: A nail-biting game that ended with Delhi winning 6-5 in the final inning.
 - Karnataka vs. Tamil Nadu: A high-scoring affair with Karnataka emerging victorious, showcasing their batting prowess.
3. Outstanding Performances:
 - Best Pitcher: Rahul Desai from Maharashtra, who recorded 15 strikeouts in the semifinals.
 - Best Batter: Ankit Singh from Uttar Pradesh, who had a batting average of .450 throughout the tournament.
 - Most Valuable Player (MVP): Suresh Kumar from Delhi, who played a crucial role in leading his team to the finals.
4. Finals:
The championship culminated in a thrilling final match between Delhi and Karnataka. Delhi claimed the title with a score of 4-3, thanks to a last-minute home run by Suresh Kumar, sealing their victory and securing their position as national champions.

Conclusion

The Open Senior National Baseball Championship was a tremendous success, highlighting the growth of baseball in India and the talent of its players. The event not only provided an excellent platform for athletes but also fostered camaraderie and sportsmanship among participants.

The organizing committee expressed gratitude to all teams, sponsors, and volunteers for their contributions to the event. Plans are already underway for the next championship, aiming to enhance the experience and promote baseball further across the country.

Director

Tula's Institute, Dehradun

Acknowledgments

The committee would like to extend its appreciation to the following:

- The Indian Baseball Federation for organizing the event.
- Coaches, officials, and volunteers for their hard work and dedication.
